DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Specifically, the term "non-resistive" added to the amended claims 1 and 2 is a new matter to the instant application, since neither the specification of the claimed invention nor the definition given by the McGraw-Hill Dictionary of Electronic and Computer Technology (1984) supports this new limitation.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 3-6 are allowed.

Reasons for Allowance

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The primary reason for the allowance of claims 3 and 4 is the inclusion of the limitation of: a calibration unit supplied with said first and second temperature values and said acoustic velocity-related measurement for determining a calibration relationship for the temperature thermometer from the first and second reference temperature values and from measurement values of the first and second temperatures supplied by the resistance thermometer. It is this limitation found in each of the claims, as it is claimed in the combination that has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record, which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

The primary reason for the allowance of claims 5 and 6 is the inclusion of the method steps of contemporaneously obtaining an acoustic velocity-related measurement value of said gas composition with an acoustic meter for use in determining a second reference temperature value, and obtaining a second measurement temperature value using the resistance thermometer, and supplying said second reference temperature value and said second measurement temperature value to a calibration unit; and in said calibration unit, determining a relationship from the first and second temperature values and the first and second measurement values, and calibrating said resistance thermometer using said relationship. It is these steps found in each of the claims, as they are claimed in the combination that has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record, which make these claims allowable over the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 07/05/2005 with respect to claims 1 and 2 have been considered but they are not persuasive.

The amendment filed 07/05/2005 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132(a) because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132(a) states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows: the "reference thermometer" recited in claims 1 and 2 was intended to refer to a "non-resistive" reference thermometer. It is further deemed that the definition of a thermo-electrical converter given by the McGraw-Hill Dictionary of Electronic and Computer Technology (1984) is broad enough to cover both resistive and non-resistive thermo-element which converts heat energy into electrical energy directly or indirectly.

Art Unit: 2863

Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.
